

Literary Notes

To buy and reproduce famous paintings involves an expenditure that could hardly be borne unless, as in the case of The Youth's Companion, the enterprise is sustained by the approval of more than five hundred thousand subscribers. The Companion's Souvenir Calendar for 1898, a series of charming figure-pieces, faithfully copied in colors and embossed in gold, is recognized as one of the richest and most costly examples of this form of art. Yet every new subscriber receives it without additional charge. Moreover, the paper is sent free to new subscribers every week from the time the subscription is received until January, 1898, and then for a full year to January, 1899.

The popular price of The Companion, $1.75 a year, and the character of its contents, make it a paper for every household. Exceptional attractions are promised for the fifty-two numbers to be issued during 1898. The Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone, the Hon. Thomas B. Reed, Rudyard Kipling, Lillian Nordica, John Burroughs, W. D. Howells and Max O'Rell are prominent in the long list of eminent contributors named in The Companion's announcement, which will be sent free to any one addressing

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,
205 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass.

The December Magazine number of The Outlook will be its annual Book Number. The Outlook was, it is believed, the first of the weekly papers to form the custom of printing each year a special number fully illustrated and containing not only descriptions and reviews of the important holiday books, but also literary articles of special interest at this season. This year a group of articles on Artistic Book-Making will form a prominent feature of the number. Mr. Theodore DeVine, the head of the famous firm of artistic printers, Mr. George Wharton Edwards, the artist, and Mr. E. D. North, the well-known bibliophile and expert in books, will contribute to this series, and the illustrations will be of a high order. Other features will make this number, it is believed, more attractive than any of its many predecessors put forth by The Outlook Company. ($3. a year. THE OUTLOOK COMPANY, 13 Astor Place, New York.)

The December number of The Preacher's Magazine is the last issue of volume seven. The Magazine, during the past year, has shown many marked improvements. There are excellent sermons in this number, one on "The Importance of Harnessing Our Thoughts," by Louis Albert Banks, D. D., and another entitled "The Ray and the Reflection," by Alexander Maclaren, D. D. The Homiletical department contains many Outlines of Sermons by distinguished preachers suggestive for the holiday season. The Children's Sermons, Notes on the International Sunday-school Lessons, Outline Addresses on the Golden Texts, together with other articles, serve to make up a most interesting number. A most excellent index of the year's numbers appear in this issue, together with portraits of Dr. Banks and Maclaren, and sketches of their lives. The Magazine is published monthly at $1.50 per year, single copy, 15 cents, and most liberal premium offers are made to new subscribers. Wilbur B. Ketcham, Publisher, 2 Cooper Union, New York.

The Christmas Ladies' Home Journal tells how the German Emperor, with the Empress and the Royal family, spend Christmas Day with their children. The article is written by Mr. Nagel von Brawe, an attache of the Court, who was permitted to be present at the celebration last Christmas in order to write this article. The pictures were made "on the spot," and approved by the Emperor.
